Keep Talking – Reloaded

Fluency in English conversation

Content and aims
People say that many important decisions are taken during the informal parts of official events. Speak English more fluently, naturally and effectively, e.g. before/after meetings, in conference breaks, or with informal work contacts. Keep the conversation going when speaking to foreign colleagues and visitors from abroad. Give yourself a dose of fun practice (100% stress-free) and you will be surprised how much English you can speak in one day!

Topics and activities include:
- Making professional small talk
- Receiving visitors and socialising
- Telling anecdotes
- Discussing current issues
- Explaining how things work in Austria

You will also learn essential phrases, e.g. how to start a conversation or what to say instead of “Mahlzeit!”

Working method
- Spoken English only – you will keep talking all day!
- Learning by doing: 1 day of total immersion in English
- Optional online follow-up

Target group
People who want to practise their informal communication skills and build their fluency and confidence when speaking English in informal work contexts.

If you have previously attended “Keep Talking”, come and check out “Keep Talking – Reloaded”—it is a new edition of this popular seminar.
