ES-E 301

Efficient Listening

Understand English speakers even better

Content and aims
Do you find native speakers of English more difficult to understand than non-natives? Do you find some accents tricky to understand? Do English TV series sometimes seem too fast for you to catch everything? We can help you train your listening skills so you can understand English speakers better. Try it out for yourself in this one-day interactive seminar. You'll be surprised how much more you can understand.

Topics and activities include:
- What native-speakers do that makes them harder to understand
- Understanding a range of different accents of English
- Strategies and techniques for effective listening
- Intensive listening practice

Working method
- Interactive seminar with individual support
- Learning by doing
- Optional online follow-up

Target group
People who need to understand a range of English speakers in their work and want to improve their ability to do so. This seminar is open to people with CEFR levels B2 – C1.
