Efficient Listening – Online

Understand English speakers even better

Content and aims

Do you find native speakers of English more difficult to understand than non-natives? Do you find some accents tricky to understand? Do English TV series sometimes seem too fast for you to catch everything? You can train your listening skills so you can understand English speakers better. Try it out for yourself, you'll be surprised how much more you can understand.

Topics and activities include:

- What native-speakers do that makes them harder to understand
- Understanding a range of different accents of English
- Strategies and techniques for effective listening
- Lots of authentic listening practice

Working method

- Interactive webinar (with pair/group work)
- Optional online follow-up

Target group

People who need to understand a range of English speakers in their work and want to improve their ability to do so. This seminar is open to people with CEFR levels B2 – C1.
